

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2800 - HB 2832

February 11, 2004

SUMMARY OF BILL: Clarifies that law enforcement officers are authorized to notify persons, institutions or organizations of information regarding a registered sexual offender when an officer believes that a person may be at risk from the offender. Also, the bill provides immunity to a law enforcement officer who discloses information regarding a registered sexual offender under this bill.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

MINIMAL

Current law provides for disclosure of this information when a law enforcement agency deems it necessary to protect the public and also provides for immunity for law enforcement officers regarding registered sexual offenders.
